

To Consider:

“A man ought to live so that everybody knows he is a Christian... and most of all, his family ought to know.”

- Dwight L. Moody

To Meditate On:

““You are my witnesses,” declares the Lord, “and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he...”

- Isaiah 43: 10 (ESV)

““But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.””

- Acts 1: 8 (ESV)

A Note from Pastor Orban ~ July 2023

Psalm 145:1-6, 21a (NET)

*I will extol you, my God, O King.
I will praise your name continually.*

*Every day I will praise you.
I will praise your name continually.*

*The LORD is great and certainly worthy of praise.
No one can fathom his greatness.*

One generation will praise your deeds to another, and tell about your mighty acts.

I will focus on your honour and majestic splendour, and your amazing deeds.

*They will proclaim the power of your awesome acts.
I will declare your great deeds.*

21a

My mouth will praise the LORD.

Not too long ago, I used this Psalm as a call to worship in our Friday night service. It came up again in my devotions the next week. As I have continued to ponder these words, I felt convicted. I began to wonder, “What is my pattern of speaking like? Is my speech ‘continually’ filled with mentions of the LORD? Do I pass along to the next generation, the wonders of my God and what He has done for me?” Then there is the question as to what is my focus as I interact with life? And what words come from those interactions with life?

This summer, I hope your conversations, reflections and words are like a fountain of praise to our Incredible God!

Dates to Note:
