

To Consider:

“My prayer is that when I die, all of hell rejoices that I am out of the fight”

- C.S. Lewis

To Meditate On:

“They will fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you, declares the Lord , to deliver you.”

- Jeremiah 1: 19

“Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.”

- 1 Peter 1: 13 (ESV)

From the Board:

We were greatly blessed by the combined “Christmas Eve in the Morning” service that we shared with our Presbyterian partners. God is good, and it was a great thing to celebrate the birth of our Saviour together.

This month sees the end of Pastor Orban’s sabbatical. The board would like to thank all of those who stepped forward to put extra effort into ministry to get us through the last 4 months. God has provided indeed!

We have survived, “not somehow, but triumphantly”. The number of people our Friday services has stayed up, with new people being added to our numbers. Needs have been met, prayers have been answered, our Lord has been worshipped and His gospel proclaimed. We would ask you to continue to be strong in prayer and service, even as we return to having a full-time pastor at the helm.
